SOUTHEND BACH CHOIR

The Southend Bach Choir began life in 1943 as an evening class of the Municipal College in Southend under the direction of its founder Dr. Harold May, FRCO. Known as the Municipal College Choir it gave its first performance in December of that year. We've continued to give a varied programme in all our concerts since then and our celebrating our 80th anniversary in 2023.

Have you ever thought you would like to join a Choir but have never taken it any further?

Why wait, why not give it a try?

THE SOUTHEND BACH CHOIR WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Singing in a Choir is a great hobby. It is not only very enjoyable, but you make new friends, and have the opportunity of learning to sing wonderful music not only in rehearsals but at regular Concerts which the public attend.

We are pleased to continue our association with HARP this evening. To support this worthwhile local charity, there will be a retiring collection in aid of their work. If you don't have spare cash this evening then please consider donating on-line.

The Southend Bach Choir would like to wish everyone

A very Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year

Programme

Conducted by: Roger Humphrey

Accompanist: Andrew Palmer

Choir: Deck the Hall arr. David Willcocks

Welcome

Choir & Audience: O come all ye faithful

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to
Bethlehem;
Come and behold him,
Born the King of Angels:
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord!

God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb:
Very God,
Begotten, not created;
O come, let us adore him

Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
Glory to God
In the highest;
O come, let us adore him

Choir: Christmas Story

Gabriel's message	arr. David Willcocks
Away in a manger	Soloist: Elyza Mells

All bells in Paradise John Rutter
I saw three ships John Rutter

Choir & Audience: While shepherds watched their flocks by night

While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he (for mighty dread
had seized their troubled mind);
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all man-kind"

"To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
A Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign."

"The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the Seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:

"All glory be to God on high,
And on the earth be peace:
Goodwill henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease."

Choir:

Choir & Audience: Hark! the herald angels sing

Hark! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled;"
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With th'angelic host proclaim
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
Hark! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

Christ, by highest heav'n adored,
Christ the everlasting Lord!
Late in time behold Him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb;
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
Hail th'incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Son of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings;
Mild He lays His glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Hark! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

HARP is Southend's leading homelessness charity. We provide housing, advice and support to nearly 1,000 people each year who are experiencing homelessness or at risk of losing their home. We help them lay the foundations they need to rebuild their lives and end their need to rough sleep for good. Working alongside our local community with provide street outreach every night and short-term emergency accommodation. When people's basic needs are met the real work begins. Our ongoing trauma informed support is tailored to an individual's needs but includes a range of things such as finding permanent accommodation, teaching life skills such as cooking and budgeting; overcoming challenges such as addiction or health conditions and in time helping people get back into work, education or training.

We have a number of supported housing projects in Southend-on-Sea, catering for the different needs that people experiencing homelessness have. These include our emergency accommodation at Heath House, our single-gender accommodation for women, White Heather House, and most recently Bluebird, our award winning 50 room development in Southend, providing blue skies and bright futures for local people experiencing homelessness.

We are fortunate to be part of a wonderful, compassionate community and we know that, with your continued support, we can provide local people with the best possible service and help them work towards overcoming homelessness for good. Thank you for your support.
